1. PURPOSE AND INTENDED USE

All products and services provided by Spectr Groups and its subsidiaries (SpectrLabs, SpectrOS, SpectrRed) are intended exclusively for educational purposes, research, security testing in controlled environments, and lawful use.

2. LEGAL LIABILITY DISCLAIMER

- The customer is solely responsible for verifying and complying with local laws before using our products.

- Any illegal use of our products or services is strictly prohibited.

- Spectr Groups disclaims all liability for third-party actions, damages, or legal consequences resulting from the use or misuse of our products. The user assumes full responsibility for legal compliance.

3. ACCEPTABLE USE

You may only use our tools and services for:

- Ethical hacking and penetration testing in lab environments
- Cybersecurity research and development
- Anonymous communication and privacy protection
- Lawful educational purposes

Any other use—such as public signal jamming, unauthorized intrusion testing, or violation of communication laws—is strictly forbidden.

4. LICENSE & INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- All software, documentation, and instructions are provided under a non-exclusive license.

- Redistribution, resale, or modification is not allowed without written permission.

5. PRIVACY AND DATA PROTECTION (GDPR)

- Spectr Groups does not collect personal data or customer information beyond what is strictly required for technical functionality.

- Any metadata or system logging is handled locally on the user's device.

- No data is stored centrally, and nothing is retained longer than necessary for delivery or support.

- All temporary information is permanently deleted after its purpose is fulfilled.
